

Knives for Guns

Skimming through youtube, I found a clip by comedian Chris Rock. It was a new take on the buy-back schemes set up by the government such as 'Money for Guns'. Rock's take on the situation was 'Knives for Guns'. Funny. There is always truth in comedy. How ridiculous, to think that having ordinary law-abiding citizens hand in guns is going to fix the tragic violent episodes caused by psychopaths. Obviously it won't be the criminals handing in the guns to the governments' buy-back scheme.
